

	JOB DESCRIPTION
	Position Title	Garden Manager/Volunteer Coordinator
	Reports to	Executive Director
	Revised	May 2018

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Garden Manager will manage all garden related activities at the Wimberly Center, a community space located in the Glenwood Neighborhood in Winder, GA. The Wimberly Center Community Garden will be an active community space focused on growing four things in the neighborhood: food, wellness, leadership, and a strong community. We accomplish our work through various programs, including open garden hours for the community, a seasonal farm stand to distribute our produce to neighbors, healthy cooking workshops, gardening workshops, leadership development, community-based art projects, and partnerships with several local community-based organizations.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Direct all aspects of growing fresh produce. Tasks include, but are not limited to, seasonal garden planning with WHA tenants, procuring seeds and seedlings, organizing and setting priorities for work days and weekly garden “open hours”, general maintenance (weeding, watering, composting, etc.), hosting open garden hours 5-10 hours per week (depending on season), and providing learning opportunities for children in the garden by engaging them in daily operations.
- Coordinate WHA tenants to assist with planning and execution of garden and community programs. Facilitate monthly meetings. Identify and coordinate opportunities for WHA members to maximize their capacity to be excellent gardeners and community leaders
- Research grants and assist with writing grant applications to secure funds for garden activities/programs, and assist with grassroots and crowdsource funding efforts. Manage accounting for garden operational budget: record all financial transactions (e.g. grant awards, expenditures, private donations, etc.) and work with our fiscal agent to plan for and track garden expenses. Provide monthly expense report to WHA Board.
- Facilitate gardening workshops and provide administrative and operational support for community programs (e.g. healthy cooking workshop, workshops facilitated on-site by other organizations).
- Develop and implement creative community outreach strategies to engage new members of the community on an ongoing basis, including occasional door-to-door outreach, creating and posting flyers and managing weekly social media posts; taking, filing, and posting photos of garden events/activities, etc.
- Seek creative partnerships and opportunities for collaboration with nonprofit community groups to strengthen garden program offerings and to build relationships with local community-based organizations.
- Track volunteer hours, activities weekly

REQUIREMENTS

- Have at least two years of experience working in an urban farm or community garden in a leadership role, or have a strong background in agriculture or gardening and education
- Have strong communication skills—written, verbal, and in one-on-one interactions—and be comfortable working in/with groups.
- Be an outgoing self-starter willing to develop and act on creative opportunities to increase the Wimberly Center Community Garden value as a resource both to local residents and organizational partners
- Be highly organized, able to work independently, and exercise sound judgment given creative latitude in garden management
- Be able to perform physical work required for garden maintenance
